

National Gay and Lesbian Task Force Academy for Leadership and Action comes to Miami in July

July 7, 2008

Sponsored by: Fairness for All Families
Florida Red and Blue
Safeguarding American Values for Everyone (SAVE)

What: The National Gay and Lesbian Task Force Academy for Leadership and Action - a premier leadership and skills development academy for the lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender rights movement - will be hosting a series of 1-day intensive campaign trainings in Miami, Fla., in July.

When: July 26 and July 27, 9AM-6PM

Where: Miami, Fla. (Details available when registering)

Why: On Nov. 4, Florida voters will face Amendment 2 on the statewide ballot. If passed, the measure would change the state constitution to ban permanently recognition of same-sex marriage, civil unions and possibly domestic partnerships for both gay and straight couples. To defeat this, we must educate thousands of Floridians about Amendment 2's harms and urge them to vote No this fall. It will take a team of hundreds of fair-minded Floridians volunteering together to win.

Session Description: Play a critical leadership role in the fight against Amendment 2 by learning how to recruit a team of volunteers, talk to voters and coordinate large-scale actions to educate Floridians to vote no. Participants must commit to putting this training to use to defeat Amendment 2.

To register, please call Task Force Senior Field Organizer Becca Ahuja at 202.360.8327.