

A casual chat with NGLTF's Ex Dir Rea Carey

Rea Carey is one of my favorite people, so I should warn you that in this interview I'm pretty casual as versus some of the other interviews I did that were more formal. Rea "gets it" and unlike a few other organizational bigwigs, she doesn't have an ego issue. She also understands that marriage is not the only issue facing the LGBT community.

Like the interview with NGLTF's Deputy Executive Director, this video was recorded during the Creating Change conference.
